

Note: Intended changes to the licence fee structure from 2024 are provided for advanced information and are not included within the scope for consultation. NEA will inform the industry separately in advance before implementing any fee changes.

Radiation worker registration

2023		Remarks
Fee description	Proposed fee [no change from current R1 registration fee except where stated]
Application to register as a radiation worker	$105 per application	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> NEA intends to revise this fee from 2024 to better reflect regulatory costs. There will be no change in fee structure.
Annual fee for registration as a radiation worker	$50 [New]	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Arising from the decoupling of personal dose monitoring services from licence application fees, this fee has been reduced from $105 (existing renewal fee) to $50 in 2023 (see paragraph 10).
Application to amend a registration certificate for radiation worker	$25 per application	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> NEA intends to revise this fee from 2024 to better reflect regulatory costs. There will be no change in fee structure.

Approval to accumulate or transport radioactive waste

2023		Remarks
Fee description	Proposed fee
Application for approval to accumulate radioactive waste	$600 per application [New]	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> These are new fees introduced for new application types.
Application for approval to transport radioactive waste	$600 per application [New]	