A BILL

i n t i t u l e d

An Act to amend the Income Tax Act (Chapter 134 of the 2014 Revised Edition) and to make related amendments to the Stamp Duties Act (Chapter 312 of the 2006 Revised Edition).

Be it enacted by the President with the advice and consent of the Parliament of Singapore, as follows:

Short title and commencement

1.—(1) This Act is the Income Tax (Amendment) Act 2020.

(2) [commencement dates].

Amendment of section 2

5     2. Section 2(1) of the Income Tax Act (called in this Act the principal Act) is amended by deleting the definition of “incapacitated person” and substituting the following definition:

“ “incapacitated person” means an individual —

(a) who is below 21 years of age; or 10     (b) who lacks capacity to make a decision for himself in relation to any matter at the material time concerned because of an impairment of, or a disturbance in the functioning of, the mind or brain, whether such impairment or disturbance is permanent or temporary.”.

New section 3A

3. The principal Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 3, the following section:

“Meaning of “authorised body”

20     3A.—(1) This section applies where the Minister, after consultation with the responsible Minister of a public body, by notification in the Gazette, assigns a function or power under a section of the Act (called in this section an incentive provision) to the public body.

25     (2) A reference in an incentive provision to an authorised body is to the public body that is assigned a function or power under the incentive provision in accordance with subsection (1).

(3) The public body, when carrying out a function or exercising a power under an incentive provision, is treated as carrying out a function or exercising a power conferred on the public body under the Act that establishes it.

5 (4) A member of the public body who is not from the public sector must not be involved in the carrying out of a function or exercise of a power under an incentive provision by the public body.

(5) The public body must not delegate a function or power under an incentive provision to any of its members, or any other person, who is not from the public sector.

10 (6) A member of the public body who is from the public sector, or any person to whom a function or power under an incentive provision has been delegated, that receives or obtains information relating to a person for the purposes of the incentive provision, must not disclose or provide access to such information to a member of the public body, or any other person, 15 who is not from the public sector.

(7) Subsection (6) does not apply to the following information:

- (a) information the disclosure of which has been approved by the Minister;
- 20 (b) information relating to a person —
  - (i) for which consent for disclosure has been obtained from the person; or
  - (ii) that is already in the possession of the public body;
- (c) information that is publicly available.

25 (8) Subsection 7(b)(ii) does not affect any obligation as to secrecy or other restriction against the disclosure of information imposed by any other written law or any contract.

30 (9) The public body may carry out a function or exercise a power under an incentive provision despite the absence of a quorum at any meeting of the public body because of subsection (4) or (6), and the absence of a quorum does not affect the validity of anything done by the public body at the meeting.

(10) An assignment of a function or power under an incentive provision in accordance with subsection (1) does not affect or prevent the carrying out of any function or exercise of any power by the Minister.

5 (11) In this section —

(a) a person is from the public sector if the person is a public officer or an employee of a public body; and

(b) “public body” and “responsible Minister”, in relation to a public body, have the meanings given by section 2(1) of the Public Sector (Governance) Act 2018.”.

[To be determined]

Amendment of section 6

4. Section 6 of the principal Act is amended —

15 (a) by inserting, immediately after subsection (4A), the following subsection:

“(4B) The obligation as to secrecy imposed by this section does not prevent the disclosure to an authorised officer of the government of another country of any information concerning any person if —

20 (a) the person gives express written consent to the disclosure; and

(b) the disclosure is for a purpose, and satisfies the conditions, prescribed by rules under section 7.”; and

25 (b) by deleting the words “the public scheme known as the wage credit scheme” in subsection (11A) and substituting the words “any or all of the public schemes specified in the Ninth Schedule”.

- 20 (e) a cash payment made by the Singapore Tourism Board between (and including) the months of April and July 2020 to the holder of a tourist guide licence as defined in section 19A of the Singapore Tourism Board Act (Cap. 305B), to mitigate loss of income from a COVID-19 event;
- 25 (f) a cash payment made on behalf of the Government to an individual under the public scheme known as the Workfare Special Payment, that is part of the Budget Statements of the Government dated 18 February 2020 and 26 March 2020;
- 30 (g) a cash payment made by the Maritime and Port Authority of Singapore under the public scheme known as the Seafarers Relief Package in year 2020 to a seafarer as defined in section 2 of the Merchant Shipping (Maritime Labour Convention) Act 2014

(Act 6 of 2014), that is funded by the Maritime and Port Authority of Singapore;

(h) a benefit received by a self-employed individual who drives a chauffeured private hire car or taxi, from —

5 (i) the Land Transport Authority of Singapore (called in this paragraph LTA); or

(ii) an entity in the Tenth Schedule,

10 that is given in connection with an amount received by LTA or the entity out of a payment made by the Government to the Special Relief Fund under the public scheme known as the Point-to-Point Support Package.

(2) The following are also exempt from tax:

15 (a) the rent or value of any place of residence in Singapore (including any furniture or fittings in that place), or an allowance for accommodation in Singapore, for use in the year 2020, provided to an individual by the individual's employer, up to a maximum of $75 per day;

20 (b) the value of any food, transport and other necessities, (called in this paragraph and paragraph (3) basic necessities) or an allowance for basic necessities, for consumption or use in Singapore in the year 2020, provided to an individual in the year 2020 by the individual's employer, up to a maximum of $50 a day for all basic necessities.

(3) Subsection (2) only applies if —

30 (a) the provision to the individual of the place of residence, allowance for accommodation, basic necessities or allowance for basic necessities is for either of the following reasons only:

(i) enable the individual (being one who ordinarily resides outside Singapore) to reside in Singapore to ensure the continuity of the employer's trade or business during a COVID-19 event;

- (ii) reduce the risk of the individual contracting COVID-19 or infecting others with COVID-19; and
- (b) before 1 February 2020, the individual’s employer did not provide to the individual or an employee with the same job scope as the individual —
  - (i) a place of residence in Singapore, or an allowance for accommodation in Singapore; or
  - (ii) basic necessities, or an allowance for basic necessities, for consumption or use in Singapore, except where provided to enable the individual to carry out his duties in exceptional circumstances, as the case may be.

Example

15 An individual carries out his duties in exceptional circumstances if he is required to work overtime to meet an exigency.

(4) An amount described in subsection (5) received or receivable in the year 2020 by a person who is a lessee or licensee of any immovable property in relation to which a remission of property tax is given by the Property Tax (Non-Residential Properties) (Remission) Order 2020 (G.N. No. S 155/2020), is exempt from tax.

- (5) The amount is any of the following, as applicable:
- (a) the amount in the form of monetary payments of any benefit of the reduction in property tax as a result of the remission that the owner of the immovable property is required under section 29(2) of the COVID-19 (Temporary Measures) Act 2020 (Act 14 of 2020) to pass on to the person in the year 2020;
  - (b) the amount of any monetary payments received or receivable by the person from the person’s lessor or licensor in the year 2020, but only if the Comptroller is satisfied that the payment is intended by the lessor or licensor to mitigate the impact of a COVID-19 event on the person's ability to pay the rent or licence fee for that property;

(c) the total of the amounts in (a) and (b).

5 (6) In this section —

“benefit” has the meaning given by the COVID-19 (Temporary Measures) (Transfer of Benefit of Property Tax Remission) Regulations 2020 (G.N. No. S 375/2020);

[1 July 2020]

Amendment of section 19

26. Section 19 of the principal Act is amended —

- 15 (a) by deleting the words “the annual allowance in respect of any machinery or plant” in subsection (2)(a) and substituting the words “subject to subsection (2AA), the annual allowance in respect of any machinery or plant acquired by a person either
- 20 in the basis period for a year of assessment before the year of assessment 2023 or under a hire-purchase agreement signed in the basis period for a year of assessment before the year of assessment 2023”;
- (b) by deleting paragraph (ba) of subsection (2) and substituting the following paragraphs:
- 25 “(ba) for the purposes of paragraph (a), the total number of years of working life of an aircraft acquired on or after 1 March 2012 but before the basis period for the year of assessment 2023 by an approved aircraft leasing company mentioned in
- 30 section 43Y is, if the company has made an election under subsection (2A) —
- (i) the sum of —

(A) the number of years of working life of an aircraft as specified in the Sixth Schedule; and

(B) the period of extension specified by the company under subsection (2A); or

(ii) 20 years,

whichever is less;

(bb) the annual allowance in respect of any machinery or plant acquired by a person either in the basis period for the year of assessment 2023 or a subsequent year of assessment or under a hire-purchase agreement signed in the basis period for the year of assessment 2023 or a subsequent year of assessment is —

(i) in the case of an asset that is not acquired under a hire-purchase agreement — the amount ascertained by dividing the excess of the original cost of the asset over any initial allowance granted under subsection (1) by any of the following number of years as elected by the person:

(A) where the number of years of working life of the asset as specified in the Sixth Schedule is less than 16 years and unless otherwise provided under paragraph (bd) — 6 or 12 years;

(B) where the number of years of working life of the asset as specified in the Sixth Schedule is 16 years — 6, 12 or 16 years;

(ii) in the case of an asset acquired under a hire-purchase agreement — the amount ascertained by dividing the excess of the original cost of the asset over the total amount of the initial amount allowable in respect of the asset under subsection (1) by any of the following number of years as elected by the person:

(A) where the number of years of working life of the asset as specified in the Sixth Schedule is less than 16 years and unless otherwise provided under paragraph (bd) — 6 or 12 years;

10

(B) where the number of years of working life of the asset as specified in the Sixth Schedule is 16 years — 6, 12 or 16 years;

15

(bc) the election under paragraph (bb) must be made to the Comptroller at the time of lodgment of the person's return of income for the year of assessment relating to the basis period in which the asset was acquired or the hire-purchase agreement was signed or within such further time as the Comptroller may allow, and such election is irrevocable;

20

(bd) for the purposes of paragraph (bb), the total number of years of working life of an aircraft acquired in the basis period for the year of assessment 2023 or a subsequent year of assessment by an approved aircraft leasing company mentioned in section 43Y is, if the company has made an election under subsection (2A) —

25

(i) the sum of —

(A) either 6 or 12 years as elected by the company under paragraph (bb); and

(B) the period of extension specified by the company under subsection (2A); or

(ii) 20 years,

5 whichever is less;”;

(c) by inserting, immediately after subsection (2), the following subsections:

“(2AA) Where —

10 (a) a machinery or plant is acquired by a person either in the basis period for a year of assessment before the year of assessment 2023 or under a hire-purchase agreement signed in the basis period for a year of assessment before the year of assessment 2023; and

15 (b) no due claim for an allowance in respect of that asset has been made under subsection (1) or (2)(a) for any year of assessment before the year of assessment 2023,

20 then, if the person makes a claim for an annual allowance in respect of that asset for the year of assessment 2023 or a subsequent year of assessment, the annual allowance in respect of that asset is ascertained by dividing the original cost of that asset by the number of years of working life of that asset, as elected by the person under 25 subsection (2AB).

(2AB) For the purposes of subsection (2AA), the person may elect for the number of years of working life of the asset to be —

30 (a) if the number of years of its working life as specified in the Sixth Schedule is less than 16 years — 6 or 12 years; or

(b) if the number of years of its working life as specified in the Sixth Schedule is 16 years — 6, 12 or 16 years.

- (2AC) An election under subsection (2AB) must be made by the person to the Comptroller at the time of the lodgment of the person’s return of income for the year of assessment 2023 or within such further time as the Comptroller may allow, and such election is irrevocable.”;
- 5
- (d) by inserting, immediately after the words “as specified in the Sixth Schedule” in subsection (2A), the words “or as elected by the person under subsection (2)(bb),”;

Repeal and re-enactment of section 33

30. Section 33 of the principal Act is repealed and the following sections substituted therefor:

“Comptroller to disregard certain transactions and dispositions

10

33.—(1) Subsection (2) applies where the Comptroller is satisfied that the purpose or effect of any arrangement is directly or indirectly —

- 15
- (a) to alter the incidence of any tax that is payable by or that would otherwise have been payable by any person;
  - (b) to relieve any person from any liability to pay tax or to make a return under this Act; or
  - (c) to reduce or avoid any liability imposed or which would otherwise have been imposed on any person by this Act.

(2) Without affecting any validity that the arrangement may have in any other respect or for any other purpose, the Comptroller must disregard or vary the arrangement and make any adjustment that the Comptroller considers appropriate, including (but not limited to) the computation or recomputation of gains or profits, or the imposition of liability to tax, so as to counteract any tax advantage obtained or obtainable by that person from or under that arrangement.

25

(3) In subsection (2), any tax advantage obtained or obtainable by a company incorporated in Singapore, includes any qualifying deduction of that company that has been transferred under section 37C to another company.

(4) Nothing in this section prevents the applicability of subsection (1) to a case, or any action of the Comptroller under subsection (2) in a case, from being questioned in an appeal against an assessment in accordance with Part XVIII.

5 (5) In this section —

“arrangement” means any scheme, trust, grant, covenant, agreement, disposition, transaction and includes all steps by which it is carried into effect;

10 “qualifying deduction” has the meaning given by section 37C(14).

(6) This section applies to any arrangement made or entered into before, on or after the date of commencement of section 30 of the Income Tax (Amendment) Act 2020, but not one entered into before 29 January 1988.

15 (7) This section does not apply to any arrangement carried out for bona fide commercial reasons and had not as one of its main purposes the avoidance or reduction of tax.

Surcharge on adjustments under section 33

20 33A.—(1) This section applies where in the year of assessment 2023 or a subsequent year of assessment —

- (a) the Comptroller imposes a liability to tax on a person for that year of assessment under section 33;
  - (b) the Comptroller recomputes any gain, profit or loss of, any capital allowance allowed to, or any deduction for a donation made by, a person for that year of assessment under section 33 which results in the imposition of liability to tax on that person for any year of assessment; or
  - (c) as a result of an adjustment under section 33, any qualifying deduction that has been transferred under section 37C by a company (called the transferor company) to another company (called the claimant company) is reduced or disregarded, and the
- 30

Comptroller makes an assessment on the claimant company under section 74 for an amount or additional amount of tax.

5 (2) In a case mentioned in subsection (1)(a) or (b), a surcharge equal to 50% of the amount of any liability to tax imposed on the person is recoverable by the Comptroller from the person as a debt due to the Government.

10 (3) In a case mentioned in subsection (1)(c), a surcharge equal to 50% of the amount of any tax or additional tax assessed on the claimant company is recoverable from the transferor company by the Comptroller as a debt due to the Government.

(4) Despite any objection to or an appeal lodged against an adjustment made under section 33 or assessment made under section 74, the surcharge must be paid —

15 (a) within one month after the date a written notice of the surcharge is served in accordance with section 8(1) on the person to whom the surcharge is imposed, as the case may be; and

(b) in the manner stated in the notice.

20 (5) The Comptroller, may in the Comptroller's discretion, and subject to any term and condition (including the imposition of interest on the surcharge) as the Comptroller may impose, extend the time within which payment is to be made.

25 (6) Sections 86(1) to (6), 87(1) and (2), 89, 90 and 91 apply to the collection and recovery of a surcharge and any interest imposed under subsection (5), as they apply to the collection and recovery of tax.

(7) The Comptroller may, for good cause, remit wholly or in part any surcharge or interest payable under this section.

30 (8) If, upon an objection under section 76 or an appeal under Part XVIII, an assessment made pursuant to any adjustment made under section 33 is varied or annulled, then the surcharge is correspondingly increased, reduced or annulled (as the case may be), and —

- (a) if the surcharge is increased, subsection (2) or (3) (as the case may be) and subsections (4), (5), (6) and (7) apply to the increased amount of the surcharge as they apply to the surcharge; or
- 5 (b) if the surcharge is reduced or annulled and it has already been paid to the Comptroller, the amount of the reduction or the entire amount (including any interest paid on the amount) must be refunded.
- (9) In this section, arrangement and qualifying deduction have 10 the meanings given by section 33(5).”.

[19 February 2020]

Repeal and re-enactment of section 37B

20 37. The principal Act is amended by deleting section 37B and substituting the following section:

“Adjustment of capital allowances, losses or donations between income subject to tax at different rates

37B.—(1) This section applies where —

(a) a company either —

- 25 (i) has income subject to tax at different rates of tax for the year of assessment concerned; or
- (ii) has income subject to tax at one rate of tax for the year of assessment concerned, and income subject to tax at a different rate of tax for an earlier year of assessment; and 5 (b) there are, in the year of assessment concerned, unabsorbed allowances, losses or donations in respect of the income that is subject to tax at one of those rates of tax, being (in the case mentioned in paragraph (a)(ii)) income for the earlier year of assessment.

10 (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), income may be subject to tax at different rates of tax even if the income is derived from carrying on the same trade or business.

(3) Subsection (1)(a)(ii) does not include a case where one of the rates of tax is that in section 43(1)(a) and the other rate of tax is also that in section 43(1)(a), but amended.

15 (4) Where the rate of tax to which the income having UALD is subject is the lower rate of tax, then those UALD are to be deducted against the income of the company subject to tax at the higher rate of tax (if it is chargeable income) in accordance with the following provisions:

20 (a) in a case where the amount of those UALD does not exceed that chargeable income multiplied by the adjustment factor —

(i) that chargeable income is reduced by an amount arrived at by dividing the amount of those UALD by the adjustment factor; and

25 (ii) the amount of those UALD is accordingly nil; and

(b) in any other case —

(i) those UALD are reduced by an amount arrived at by multiplying the amount of that chargeable income by the adjustment factor, and —

30 (A) the remaining UALD; or

(B) if the remaining UALD are then reduced by one or more applications of subsection (6)(b), the remaining UALD (if any) after such reduction or reductions, are added to, and deemed to form part of, the corresponding allowances, losses or donations in respect of the income subject to tax at the lower rate of tax, for the next succeeding year of assessment and any subsequent year of assessment in accordance with section 23 or 37, as the case may be; and

(ii) the chargeable income is accordingly nil.

(5) Where the rate of tax to which the income having UALD is subject is the higher rate of tax, then those UALD are to be deducted against the income of the company subject to tax at the lower rate of tax (if it is chargeable income) in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) in a case where the amount of those UALD does not exceed that chargeable income divided by the adjustment factor —

(i) that chargeable income is reduced by an amount arrived at by multiplying the amount of those UALD by the adjustment factor; and

(ii) the amount of those UALD is accordingly nil;

(b) in any other case —

(i) the amount of those UALD is reduced by an amount arrived at by dividing the amount of that chargeable income by the adjustment factor, and —

(A) the remaining UALD; or

(B) if the remaining UALD are then reduced by one or more applications of subsection (6)(b), the remaining UALD (if any) after such reduction or reductions, are added to, and deemed to form part of, the corresponding allowances, losses or donations in respect of the income subject to tax at the higher rate of tax, for the next succeeding year of assessment and any subsequent year of assessment in accordance with section 23 or 37, as the case may be; and 5 (ii) that chargeable income is accordingly nil.

(6) Where, in a case mentioned in subsection (1)(a)(i), the company has income subject to tax at 3 or more rates of tax (called in this subsection applicable tax rates), then for the purposes of subsection (4) or (5) —

10 (a) the company may elect its income that is subject to tax at one of the applicable tax rates as its income that is subject to tax at a lower or higher rate of tax, as the case may be;

15 (b) the UALD in respect of the company's income that is subject to tax at the lower or higher rate of tax (as the case may be), that has been reduced in accordance with subsection (4)(b) or (5)(b), may be further deducted in accordance with that provision against the company's remaining income that is subject to tax at an applicable tax rate; and 20 (c) paragraph (b) continues to apply until the amount of the UALD becomes nil or the company has no more income subject to tax at an applicable rate against which the deduction may be made.

25 (7) Where —

(a) the income in respect of which there are UALD is subject to tax at the lower rate of tax; and

(b) the company ceases to derive that income in the basis period for the year of assessment concerned,

30 subsection (4) applies, with the necessary modifications, to the UALD mentioned in paragraph (a) for the purpose of deducting them against the income of the company subject to tax at the higher rate of tax (if it is chargeable income) for any year of assessment subsequent to the year of assessment concerned.

(8) Where —

- (a) the income in respect of which there are UALD is subject to tax at the higher rate of tax,
- (b) the company ceases to derive that income in the basis period for the year of assessment concerned, subsection (5) applies, with the necessary modifications, to the UALD mentioned in paragraph (a) for the purpose of deducting them against the income of the company subject to tax at the lower rate of tax (if it is chargeable income) for any year of assessment subsequent to the year of assessment concerned.

(9) Nothing in this section is to be construed as affecting the application of section 23 or 37 unless otherwise provided in this section.

(10) If, during the basis period for the year of assessment 2013 or any subsequent year of assessment (called in this subsection the relevant year of assessment), a company only derives income that is exempt from tax, then subsection (5) applies, with the necessary modifications, to any year of assessment subsequent to the relevant year of assessment as if any sum allowable under section 37(3)(b), (c), (d) or (f) in respect of any donation made by that company during the basis period for the relevant year of assessment were unabsorbed donation in respect of the income of a company that is subject to tax at the rate of tax specified in section 43(1)(a).

25

(11) In this section —

“adjustment factor” means the factor ascertained in accordance with the formula

$$\frac{A}{B},$$

where —

30

- (a) A is the higher rate of tax; and
- (b) B is the lower rate of tax.

30 Amendment of section 37C

38. Section 37C(17) of the principal Act is amended by deleting the words “section 37B(2) and (3)” and substituting the words “section 37B(4) and (5)”.

Amendment of section 37E

39. Section 37E of the principal Act is amended —

(a) by inserting, immediately after subsection (1), the following subsections:

5           “(1A) Despite subsection (1) but subject to the other provisions of this section, a person may, instead of deducting any qualifying deduction for the year of assessment 2020 in accordance with subsection (1), deduct the qualifying deduction for that year of 10 assessment against the person’s assessable income for the 3 years of assessment immediately preceding the year of assessment 2020.

(1B) A qualifying deduction under subsection (1A) must be deducted in the following order:

15           (a) the deduction must first be made against the person’s assessable income for the year of assessment 2017 or any balance of the income after applying subsection (1C);

20           (b) any balance of the qualifying deduction after the deduction in paragraph (a) must then be made against the person’s assessable income for the year of assessment 2018 or any balance of the income after applying subsection (1C);

25           (c) any balance of the qualifying deduction after the deduction in paragraph (b) must then be made against the person’s assessable income for the year of assessment 2019.

30           (1C) Where a person is entitled under both subsections (1) and (1A) to make deductions in the year of assessment 2017 or 2018 against the person’s assessable income for that year of assessment, then the deductions must be made in the following manner:

- 5                   (a) the assessable income for that year of assessment must so far as possible be deducted by the amount of the qualifying deduction for the year of assessment 2018 or 2019 (as the case may be) that the person is entitled to so deduct under subsection (1);
- 10                   (b) any balance of the assessable income for the first-mentioned year of assessment must so far as possible be deducted by the amount of the qualifying deduction for the year of assessment 2020 or the balance of the qualifying deduction mentioned in subsection (1B)(b), as the case may be.”;
- 15           (b) by inserting, immediately after subsection (3), the following subsection:
- 20                   “(3A) Despite subsection (3), where a person makes an election under subsection (6) for the deduction of any qualifying deduction for the year of assessment 2020 in accordance with subsection (1A), the amount of the qualifying deduction to be deducted against the assessable income for any of the 3 years of assessment immediately preceding it is the lower of —
- 25                   (a) the amount of the qualifying deduction available for deduction for the second-mentioned year of assessment under subsection (1B); and
- 30                   (b) the amount of the assessable income of the person for the second-mentioned year of assessment or (if applicable) the amount of assessable income of the person for that year of assessment against which the deduction may be made under subsection (1C)(b).”;
- 35           (c) by inserting, immediately after the words “immediate preceding year of assessment” wherever they appear in subsection (4), the words “or (as the case may be) any of the 3 immediate preceding years of assessment”;

(d) by deleting subsection (4) and substituting the following subsection:

5 “(4) Subject to the provisions of this section, section 37B (as it applies in a case mentioned in subsection (1)(a)(ii) of that section) applies, with the necessary modifications, to the deduction of any qualifying deduction by any company for any year of assessment against its assessable income for the immediate preceding year of assessment or (as the case may be) any of the 3 immediate preceding years of assessment (where applicable), as if —

10 (a) the qualifying deduction for the year of assessment is qualifying deduction for an earlier year of assessment;

15 (b) the income for the immediate preceding year of assessment or (as the case may be) any of the 3 immediate preceding years of assessment is income for the year of assessment concerned;

(c) a reference in section 37B(4) and (5) —

20 (i) to unabsorbed allowances, losses or donations or UALD is a reference to qualifying deduction;

25 (ii) to corresponding allowances, losses or donations is a reference to allowances or losses; and

30 (iii) to chargeable income of the company is a reference to assessable income for the immediate preceding year of assessment or (as the case may be) any of the 3 immediate preceding years of assessment of the company.”;

35 (e) by deleting the words “the reference to “higher rate of tax” or “lower rate of tax” in section 37B” in subsection (4A) and substituting the words “any reference to “rate of tax” in section 37B”;

- (f) by deleting the words “under this section” in subsection (6) and substituting the words “under subsection (1) or any of the 3 immediate preceding years of assessment under subsection (1A)”;
- 5 (g) by deleting the words “this section” in subsection (8) and substituting the words “subsection (1)”;
- (h) by inserting, immediately after subsection (8), the following subsection:
- 10 “(8A) Despite subsection (8), where the Comptroller discovers that any deduction made under subsection (1A) against the assessable income of any person for the year of assessment 2017 or 2018 has become excessive, the Comptroller may make an assessment on the person on the amount which, in the Comptroller’s opinion, ought to have been charged to tax in that year of assessment —
- 15 (a) in the case of the year of assessment 2017 — within 7 years after the expiration of the year of assessment; or
- (b) in the case of the year of assessment 2018 — 20 within 6 years after the expiration of the year of assessment.”;
- (i) by inserting, immediately after the words “income for the immediate preceding year of assessment” in subsections (11) and (12), the words “or (as the case may be) any of the 3 immediate preceding years of assessment”;
- 25 (j) by deleting the words “basis period for the immediate preceding year of assessment” in subsection (11) and substituting the words “basis period for the second-mentioned year of assessment”; and
- 30 (k) by deleting the words “last day of the immediate preceding year of assessment” in subsection (12) and substituting the words “last day of the second-mentioned year of assessment”.

20 Related amendments to Stamp Duties Act

63. The Stamp Duties Act (Cap. 312) is amended —

- (a) by deleting section 33A and substituting the following sections:

25 “Commissioner to disregard certain transactions and dispositions

33A.—(1) Subsection (2) applies where the Commissioner is satisfied that the purpose or effect of any arrangement is, directly or indirectly —

- (a) to alter the incidence of any duty that is payable or that would otherwise have been payable by any person;
- (b) to relieve any person from any liability to pay duty; or
- (c) to reduce or avoid any liability imposed or that would otherwise have been imposed on any person by this Act.

(2) Without affecting any validity the arrangement may have in any other respect or for any other purpose, the Commissioner must disregard or vary the arrangement and make any adjustment that the Commissioner considers appropriate, including the amount of duty payable, or the imposition of liability to duty, so as to counteract any reduction in or avoidance of duty payable by that person from or under that arrangement.

(3) An adjustment may be made under subsection (2) whether or not there is an instrument.

(4) In this section, “arrangement” means any scheme, trust, grant, covenant, agreement, disposition, transaction and includes all steps by which it is carried into effect.

(5) This section applies to any arrangement made or entered into before, on or after the date of commencement of section 63 of the Income Tax (Amendment) Act 2020, but not one entered into before 1 September 1999.

(6) This section does not apply to any arrangement carried out for bona fide commercial reasons and had not as one of its main purposes the avoidance or reduction of duty.

Surcharge on adjustments under section 33A

33B.—(1) This section applies to any instrument, or any thing treated as an instrument, that is executed or treated as executed on or after the date of commencement of section 63 of the Income Tax (Amendment) Act 2020.

(2) Where the Commissioner makes any adjustment under section 33A, a surcharge equal to 50% of the amount of —

(a) the additional duty payable by a person; or

5 (b) (where a liability to duty is imposed) the duty payable by a person, as a result of the adjustment, is recoverable by the Commissioner from the person as a debt due to the Government.

10 Payment and recovery of duty and surcharge imposed under sections 33A and 33B

33C.—(1) Despite any objection under section 39A to an adjustment under section 33A or an appeal against it under section 40 —

15 (a) the duty or additional duty resulting from the adjustment; and

(b) the surcharge,

(collectively called the amounts due) must be paid —

20 (c) within one month after the date of the notice of the amounts due from the Commissioner to the person liable for the amounts due; and

(d) in the manner stated in the notice.

25 (2) The Commissioner may, in the Commissioner's discretion and subject to any term and condition (including the imposition of interest) as he may impose, extend the time specified in subsection (1) within which payment is to be made.

30 (3) If any part of the amounts due and any interest imposed under subsection (2) is not paid within the period specified in subsection (1) or extended under subsection (2), the person is liable to pay the following penalties:

(a) where the outstanding amount is paid to the Commissioner within 3 months after the date of expiry of such period, a penalty of $10 or the outstanding amount, whichever is the greater;

5 (b) where the outstanding amount is not paid to the Commissioner within 3 months after the date of expiry of such period, a penalty of $25 or 4 times the outstanding amount, whichever is the greater.

10 (4) Sections 50 and 70AA apply to the collection and recovery by the Commissioner of the amounts due, interest imposed under subsection (2) and any penalty imposed under subsection (3) as they apply to the collection and recovery of duty and penalty required to be paid under this Act.

15 (5) The Commissioner may, for good cause, remit wholly or in part the surcharge imposed under section 33B(2) or penalty imposed under subsection (3).

20 (6) If, upon an objection under section 39A or an appeal under section 40, an adjustment made under section 33A is increased, reduced or annulled, then the surcharge is correspondingly increased, reduced or annulled (as the case may be), and —

25 (a) if the amounts due are increased, subsections (1) to (5) apply to the increased amounts as they apply to the amounts due; or 30 (b) if the amounts due are reduced or annulled and they or any part of them have already been paid to the Commissioner, the amount of the reduction or the entire amount (including any interest paid on the amount) must be refunded.”.

(b) by deleting the heading of Part V and substituting the following Part heading:

“PART V

ADJUDICATION, OBJECTION AND APPEAL”;

- 5 (c) by inserting, immediately after the words “the duty” in section 39A(8), the words “or surcharge on the duty (if applicable)”;
- (d) by inserting, immediately after the words “subsection (6)” in section 39A(9), the words “and an adjustment under section 33A”;
- 10 (e) by inserting, immediately after the words “payment of duty” in section 40(1)(a), the words “, and surcharge (if applicable),”;
- (f) by deleting subsection (3) of section 40 and substituting the following subsection:
- 15 “(3) Upon hearing the case, the High Court is to determine the question submitted and —
- (a) in the case of a decision on a notice of objection to an adjustment under section 33A — if the Court is of the opinion that the purpose or effect of the arrangement in question is that specified in section 33A(1) and 33A(6) does not apply, the Court is to either confirm or vary the adjustment; and
- 20 (b) in any other case — if the Court is of the opinion that the instrument in question is chargeable with duty, the Court is to assess the duty with which it is chargeable.”;
- (g) by inserting, immediately after the words “together with any” in section 40(4) the words “interest, surcharge, ”; and
- 25 (h) by inserting, immediately subsection (5) of section 40, the following subsection:
- 30 “(6) In this section —
- “arrangement” has the meaning given by section 33A(4);

“surcharge” means a surcharge imposed by section 33B.”.

Saving and transitional provisions

64.—(1) Despite section 3, where —

- 5       (a) before the appointed date —
- (i) any person or matter was approved by a person appointed by the Minister under an incentive provision as in force immediately before that date; or
- 10       (ii) any waiver, determination or other thing (not being an approval) was made or done by the person appointed by the Minister in exercise of any other function or power under the incentive provision or any subsidiary legislation made under the incentive provision as in force immediately before that date;
- 15       (b) the approval, waiver, determination or thing remained in force immediately before the appointed date; and
- (c) the power of approval or any other function or power has been assigned to a public body under section 3A of the principal Act,
- 20 then that approval, waiver, determination or thing continues in effect for the remaining period of its validity (if any) as if it were given by that public body, or made or done in exercise of that function or power by that public body, under the incentive provision or any subsidiary legislation made under the incentive provision.
- 25       (2) The deemed approval, waiver, determination or thing mentioned in subsection (1) is subject to the conditions to which the approval, waiver, determination or thing was subject immediately before the appointed date, and for this purpose those conditions are treated as having been imposed by the public body.
- 30       (3) For a period of 2 years after the date of commencement of section 3, the Minister may, by rules made under section 7, prescribe any additional provision of a saving or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of that provision that the Minister considers necessary or expedient.

(4) In this section —

5 “appointed date” is the date of commencement of section 3 of the Income Tax (Amendment) Act 2020;

“incentive provision” means a section of the principal Act a function or power under which has been assigned to a public body under section 3A(1) of the principal Act.
