appoint may, upon application by any insurer carrying on marine hull and liability insurance business (whether or not the insurer is licensed under the Insurance Act (Cap. 142) to carry on life business), and if the Minister or the person (as the case may be) considers it expedient in the public interest to do so, approve the insurer as an approved marine hull and liability insurer for a period of 5 years.

Approval of specialised insurer

7. During the period from 1 June 2017 to 31 August 2021 (both dates inclusive), the Minister or such person as the Minister may appoint may, upon application by any insurer underwriting one or more specialised insurance risks (whether or not the insurer is licensed under the Insurance Act (Cap. 142) to carry on life business), and if the Minister or the person (as the case may be) considers it expedient in the public interest to do so, approve the insurer as an approved specialised insurer for a period of 5 years.

Concessionary rate of tax for approved insurer

8.—(1) Subject to this regulation, tax is payable at the rate of 10% on the income mentioned in paragraph (2) that is derived by an approved insurer in a basis period for any year of assessment.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), the income is —

- (a) underwriting income derived from the insurer's general business (excluding specified general business);
- (b) the part of A that is attributable to the insurer's offshore general business in Singapore (excluding specified general business) ascertained by the formula:

$$\frac{P_{ogx}}{P_{og}} \times A ;$$

- (c) the part of B that is attributable to the insurer's general business in Singapore (other than offshore general business), excluding specified general business, ascertained by the formula:

$$\frac{P_{igx}}{P_{ig}} \times B ; \text{ and}$$

- (d) the part of C that is attributable to the insurer's general business in Singapore (excluding specified general business) ascertained by the formula:

$$\frac{P_{igx} + P_{ogx}}{P_{ig} + P_{og}} \times C$$

- (3) In paragraph (2) —

“A” is the total amount of the following income (excluding excluded income) derived in the basis period:

- (a) dividends and qualifying interest derived from the investment of its insurance fund established and maintained under the Insurance Act (Cap. 142) for the insurer's offshore general business;
- (b) gains or profits from the sale of qualifying investments acquired using such insurance fund, less any expenses incurred in the production of such income for which a deduction is allowed under the Act;

“B” is the total amount of the following income (excluding excluded income) derived in the basis period:

- (a) dividends and qualifying interest derived from the investment of its insurance fund established and maintained under the Insurance Act for the insurer's general business (other than offshore general business);
- (b) gains or profits from the sale of qualifying investments acquired using such insurance fund, less any expenses incurred in the production of such income for which a deduction is allowed under the Act;

“C” is the total amount of the following income (excluding excluded income) derived in the basis period:

- (a) dividends and qualifying interest derived from the investment of its shareholders' fund established in Singapore which are used to support the insurer's general business;

(b) gains or profits from the sale of qualifying investments acquired using such shareholders' fund, less any expenses incurred in the production of such income for which a deduction is allowed under the Act;

“ P_{ig} ” is the total amount of the gross premiums received or receivable in the basis period in respect of all policies underwritten by the approved insurer in the course of carrying on its general business in Singapore (other than offshore general business);

“ P_{igx} ” is the total amount of gross premiums received or receivable in the basis period in respect of all policies underwritten by the approved insurer in the course of carrying on its general business in Singapore (other than offshore general business), excluding direct stand-alone policies relating to the insurance against fire, motor, work injury compensation, personal accident or health risk;

“ P_{og} ” is the total amount of gross premiums received or receivable in the basis period in respect of all policies underwritten by the approved insurer in the course of carrying on its offshore general business in Singapore;

“ P_{ogx} ” is the total amount of gross premiums received or receivable in the basis period in respect of all policies underwritten by the approved insurer in the course of carrying on its offshore general business in Singapore, excluding direct stand-alone policies relating to the insurance against fire, motor, work injury compensation, personal accident or health risk; and

“excluded income” means any income derived in the basis period from any investment in or the sale of, any stock, share or other securities of a company that —

(a) is in the business of trading or holding —

(i) prescribed assets or projects, and other immovable property; or

- (ii) immovable properties other than prescribed assets or projects;
- (b) is not in the business of property development; and
- (c) is not listed on a stock exchange in Singapore or elsewhere.
- (4) Where the approved insurer is also an approved captive insurer, the reference to gross premiums in the definitions of “ P_{igx} ” and “ P_{ogx} ” in paragraph (3) excludes the gross premiums received or receivable in the basis period in respect of all policies underwritten by the approved insurer in the course of carrying on its captive insurance business in Singapore.
- (5) Where the approved insurer is also an approved marine hull and liability insurer, the reference to gross premiums in the definitions of “ P_{igx} ” and “ P_{ogx} ” in paragraph (3) excludes the gross premiums received or receivable in the basis period in respect of all policies underwritten by the approved insurer in the course of carrying on its marine hull and liability insurance business in Singapore.
- (6) Where the approved insurer is also an approved specialised insurer, the reference to gross premiums in the definitions of “ P_{igx} ” and “ P_{ogx} ” in paragraph (3) excludes the gross premiums received or receivable in the basis period in respect of all policies underwritten by the approved insurer in the course of carrying on its specialised insurance business in Singapore.
- (7) For the purposes of paragraph (2), where the Comptroller is satisfied that any part of the insurance fund mentioned in the definition of “ A ” or “ B ” in paragraph (3) is not required to support the offshore general business or the general business (other than the offshore general business) of the approved insurer (as the case may be), the Comptroller may adopt such reduced amount of “ A ” in paragraph (2)(b) or “ B ” in paragraph (2)(c) as appears to the Comptroller to be reasonable in the circumstances.
- (8) For the purposes of paragraph (2), where the Comptroller is satisfied that any part of the shareholders’ fund mentioned in the definition of “ C ” in paragraph (3) is not required to support the general business of the approved insurer, the Comptroller may adopt such reduced amount of “C” in paragraph (2)(d) as appears to the Comptroller to be reasonable in the circumstances.

(9) A reference in this regulation to interest includes a reference to qualifying return in lieu of interest.

Concessionary rate of tax for approved marine hull and liability insurer

9.—(1) Tax is payable at the rate of 10% on income specified in paragraph (2) that is derived by an approved marine hull and liability insurer in a basis period for any year of assessment.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), the income is —

(a) underwriting income derived from the insurer’s marine hull and liability insurance business;

(b) the part of A that is attributable to the insurer’s offshore marine hull and liability insurance business in Singapore, ascertained by the formula:

$$\frac{P_{om}}{P_{og}} \times A ;$$

(c) the part of B that is attributable to the insurer’s marine hull and liability insurance business in Singapore (other than offshore marine hull and liability insurance business), ascertained by the following formula:

$$\frac{P_{im}}{P_{ig}} \times B ; \text{ and}$$

(d) the part of C that is attributable to the insurer’s marine hull and liability insurance business in Singapore, ascertained by the following formula:

$$\frac{P_{im} + P_{om}}{P_{ig} + P_{og}} \times C .$$

(3) In paragraph (2) —

“P_{ig}”, “P_{og}”, “A”, “B” and “C” have the same meanings as in regulation 8(3), with the reference to approved insurer substituted with the reference to approved marine hull and liability insurer;

“P_{im}” is the total amount of gross premiums received or receivable in the basis period in respect of all policies underwritten by the approved marine hull and liability insurer in the course of carrying on its marine hull and liability insurance business in Singapore (other than offshore marine hull and liability insurance business); and

“P_{om}” is the total amount of gross premiums received or receivable in the basis period in respect of all policies underwritten by the approved marine hull and liability insurer in the course of carrying on its offshore marine hull and liability insurance business in Singapore.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (2), where the Comptroller is satisfied that any part of the insurance fund mentioned in the definition of “A” or “B” in paragraph (3) is not required to support the offshore marine hull and liability insurance business or marine hull and liability insurance business (other than offshore marine hull and liability insurance business) of the approved marine hull and liability insurer (as the case may be), the Comptroller may adopt such reduced amount of “A” in paragraph (2)(b) or “B” in paragraph (2)(c) as appears to the Comptroller to be reasonable in the circumstances.

(5) For the purposes of paragraph (2), where the Comptroller is satisfied that any part of the shareholders’ fund mentioned in the definition of “C” in paragraph (3) is not required to support the marine hull and liability insurance business of the approved marine hull and liability insurer, the Comptroller may adopt such reduced amount of “C” in paragraph (2)(d) as appears to the Comptroller to be reasonable in the circumstances.

Concessionary rate of tax for approved specialised insurer

10.—(1) Tax is payable at the rate of 5% on the income specified in paragraph (4) that is derived by an approved specialised insurer in a basis period for any year of assessment, if the insurer’s approval is granted between 1 June 2017 and 31 August 2019 (both dates inclusive), and the insurer had not been approved as such at any time before the date of the approval.

(2) Tax is payable at the rate of 8% on the income specified in paragraph (4) that is derived by an approved specialised insurer in a basis period for any year of assessment, if the insurer's approval is granted on or after 1 September 2019, and the insurer had not been approved as such at any time before the date of the approval.

(3) Tax is payable at the rate of 10% on the income specified in paragraph (4) that is derived by an approved specialised insurer in a basis period for any year of assessment, if the insurer's approval is granted on or after 1 June 2017, and the insurer had been approved as such at any time before the date of the firstmentioned approval.

(4) For the purposes of paragraphs (1), (2) and (3), the income is —

(a) underwriting income derived by the approved specialised insurer from its specialised insurance business;

(b) the part of A that is attributable to the insurer's offshore specialised insurance business in Singapore, ascertained by the following formula:

$$\frac{P_{os}}{P_{og}} \times A;$$

(c) the part of B that is attributable to the insurer's specialised insurance business in Singapore (other than offshore specialised insurance business), ascertained by the following formula:

$$\frac{P_{is}}{P_{ig}} \times B;$$

(d) the part of C that is attributable to the insurer's specialised insurance business in Singapore, ascertained by the following formula:

$$\frac{P_{is} + P_{os}}{P_{ig} + P_{og}} \times C.$$

(5) In paragraph (4) —

“P_{ig}”, “P_{og}”, “A”, “B” and “C” have the same meanings as in regulation 8(3), with the reference to approved insurer substituted with the reference to approved specialised insurer;

“P_{is}” is the total amount of gross premiums received or receivable in the basis period in respect of all policies underwritten by the approved specialised insurer in the course of carrying on its specialised insurance business in Singapore (other than offshore specialised insurance business); and

“P_{os}” is the total amount of gross premiums received or receivable in the basis period in respect of all policies underwritten by the approved specialised insurer in the course of carrying on its offshore specialised insurance business in Singapore.

(6) For the purposes of paragraph (4), where the Comptroller is satisfied that any part of the insurance fund mentioned in the definition of “A” or “B” in paragraph (5) is not required to support the offshore specialised insurance business or specialised insurance business (other than offshore specialised insurance business) of the approved specialised insurer (as the case may be), the Comptroller may adopt such reduced amount of “A” in paragraph (4)(b) or “B” in paragraph (4)(c) as appears to the Comptroller to be reasonable in the circumstances.

(7) For the purposes of paragraph (4), where the Comptroller is satisfied that any part of the shareholders’ fund mentioned in the definition of “C” in paragraph (5) is not required to support the specialised insurance business of the approved specialised insurer, the Comptroller may adopt such reduced amount of “C” in paragraph (4)(d) as appears to the Comptroller to be reasonable in the circumstances.

(8) For the purposes of the definitions of “P_{is}” and “P_{os}”, a policy for a risk arising from a natural catastrophe underwritten by an approved specialised insurer is regarded as a policy underwritten by the insurer in the course of carrying on its offshore specialised insurance business or specialised insurance business (other than offshore specialised insurance business) (as the case may be), if and only if it is a catastrophe excess of loss policy.

Concessionary rate of tax and exemption for approved captive insurer

11.—(1) Subject to the condition in paragraph (5), the income mentioned in paragraph (3) derived by an approved captive insurer in a basis period for any year of assessment is exempt from tax, if its approval is granted on or after 1 June 2017 but before 1 April 2018.

(2) Subject to the condition in paragraph (5), tax is payable at the rate of 10% on the income mentioned in paragraph (3) derived by an approved captive insurer in a basis period for any year of assessment, if its approval is granted on or after 1 April 2018.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (1), the income is —

- (a) underwriting income derived from the insurer’s captive insurance business (excluding specified captive business);
- (b) the part of A that is attributable to its offshore captive insurance business in Singapore (excluding specified captive business) ascertained by the formula:

$$\frac{P_{ocx}}{P_{og}} \times A ;$$

- (c) the part of B that is attributable to its captive insurance business in Singapore (other than offshore captive insurance business), excluding specified captive business, ascertained by the formula:

$$\frac{P_{icx}}{P_{ig}} \times B ; \text{ and}$$

- (d) the part of C that is attributable to its captive insurance business in Singapore (excluding specified captive business) ascertained by the formula:

$$\frac{P_{icx} + P_{ocx}}{P_{ig} + P_{og}} \times C .$$

(4) In paragraph (3) —

- “P_{ig}”, “P_{og}”, “A”, “B” and “C” have the same meanings as in regulation 8(3), with the reference to approved insurer substituted with the reference to approved captive insurer;

“P_{icx}” is the total amount of gross premiums received or receivable in the basis period in respect of all policies underwritten by the approved captive insurer in the course of carrying on its captive insurance business in Singapore (other than offshore captive insurance business), excluding specified premiums; and

“P_{ocx}” is the total amount of gross premiums received or receivable in the basis period in respect of all policies underwritten by the approved captive insurer in the course of carrying on its offshore captive insurance business in Singapore, excluding specified premiums.

(5) For the purposes of paragraph (1), the condition is that at all times in the basis period in which the income is derived, all the functions in the following paragraphs are undertaken for the captive insurer by a company incorporated in Singapore, or by personnel located in Singapore who are employed by a company incorporated outside Singapore:

- (a) either or both of the following:
 - (i) ensuring compliance with any requirement or any direction, notice or other document issued under the Insurance Act (Cap. 142);
 - (ii) ensuring compliance with any requirement or any direction, notice or other document issued under the Monetary Authority of Singapore Act (Cap. 186);
- (b) ensuring compliance with any requirement relating to financial accounting, auditing and reporting under the Companies Act (Cap. 50);
- (c) the day-to-day management of the captive insurer’s business.

(6) For the purposes of paragraph (3), where the Comptroller is satisfied that any part of the insurance fund mentioned in the definition of “A” or “B” in paragraph (4) is not required to support the offshore captive insurance business or the captive insurance business (other than the offshore captive insurance business) of the approved captive insurer (as the case may be), the Comptroller may adopt such reduced amount of “A” in paragraph (3)(b) or “B” in paragraph (3)(c) as appears to the Comptroller to be reasonable in the circumstances;

(7) For the purposes of paragraph (3), where the Comptroller is satisfied that any part of the shareholders' fund mentioned in the definition of "C" in paragraph (4) is not required to support the captive insurance business of the approved captive insurer, the Comptroller may adopt such reduced amount of "C" in paragraph (3)(d) as appears to the Comptroller to be reasonable in the circumstances.

Determination of exempt income of approved captive insurer

12.—(1) In determining the amount of exempt income of an approved captive insurer under regulation 11(1) —

- (a) the Comptroller must have regard to such expenses and capital allowances for which a deduction is allowed under the Act as are, in the Comptroller's opinion, to be deducted in ascertaining such income;
- (b) any capital allowances attributable to that income must be deducted from that income, even though no claim for those allowances has been made;
- (c) any balance of the allowances mentioned in sub-paragraph (b) and any losses incurred in respect of the captive insurance business (which, had they been profits, would have been exempt from tax under regulation 11(1)) may only be deducted against income to be exempt under regulation 11(1), and any balance of such allowances and losses must not be deducted against any other income;
- (d) any balance of the allowances and losses mentioned in sub-paragraph (c) remaining unabsorbed as at the date of the expiry or withdrawal of the approval under regulation 5 is, subject to paragraph (2), available as a deduction against any other income of the insurer for the year of assessment which relates to the basis period in which that approval expires or is withdrawn and any subsequent year of assessment in accordance with section 23 or 37 of the Act, as the case may be.

(2) Section 37B of the Act applies to any amount of the allowances and losses available as a deduction against any other income as provided under paragraph (1)(d) as if they were unabsorbed allowances or losses in respect of the income of a company subject to tax at a lower rate of tax under that section, and for this purpose the lower rate of tax is 10%.

Apportionment of expenses, allowances and donations

13.—(1) For the purpose of determining the income mentioned in regulation 8(2) —

(a) any item of expenditure not directly attributable to the general business in Singapore (excluding specified general business) of an approved insurer, and capital allowances and donations for which a deduction is allowable to the insurer under the Act, are to be apportioned between such business and the specified general business of the approved insurer; and

(b) for the purpose of sub-paragraph (a), the portion of expenditure, capital allowances and donation to be apportioned to the general business in Singapore of the approved insurer (excluding specified general business) is ascertained using the fraction:

$$\frac{P_{igx} + P_{ogx}}{P_{ig} + P_{og}},$$

where “P_{ig}”, “P_{igx}”, “P_{og}” and “P_{ogx}” have the same meanings as in regulation 8(3).

(2) For the purpose of determining the income mentioned in regulation 9(2) —

(a) any item of expenditure not directly attributable to the marine hull and liability insurance business in Singapore of an approved marine hull and liability insurer, and capital allowances and donations for which a deduction is allowable to the insurer under the Act, are to be apportioned between such business and the other general business of the insurer; and

$$\frac{P_{im} + P_{om}}{P_{ig} + P_{og}},$$

where —

- (i) “P_{ig}” and “P_{og}” have the same meanings as in regulation 8(3), with the reference to the approved insurer substituted with the reference to the approved marine hull and liability insurer; and
- (ii) “P_{im}” and “P_{om}” have the same meanings as in regulation 9(3).

- (3) For the purpose of determining the income mentioned in regulation 10(4) —

- (a) any item of expenditure not directly attributable to the specialised insurance business in Singapore of an approved specialised insurer, and capital allowances and donations for which a deduction is allowable to the insurer under the Act, are to be apportioned between such business and the other general business of the insurer; and

$$\frac{P_{is} + P_{os}}{P_{ig} + P_{og}},$$

where —

- (i) “P_{ig}” and “P_{og}” have the same meanings as in regulation 8(3), with the reference to the approved insurer substituted with the reference to the approved specialised insurer; and

(ii) “P_{is}” and “P_{os}” have the same meanings as in regulation 10(5).

(4) For the purpose of determining the income mentioned in regulation 11(3) —

(a) any item of expenditure not directly attributable to the captive insurance business in Singapore (excluding specified captive business) of an approved captive insurer, and capital allowances and donations for which a deduction is allowable to the insurer under the Act, are to be apportioned between such business and the other general business of the insurer; and

$$\frac{P_{icx} + P_{ocx}}{P_{ig} + P_{og}},$$

where —

(i) “P_{ig}” and “P_{og}” have the same meanings as in regulation 8(3), with the reference to the approved insurer substituted with the reference to the approved captive insurer; and

(ii) “P_{icx}” and “P_{ocx}” have the same meanings as in regulation 11(4).

(5) The Comptroller may apply any alternative method of apportionment in place of any of the prescribed fractions in paragraph (1), (2), (3) or (4) if the Comptroller is satisfied that the alternative method is reasonable in the circumstances of the business of the insurer mentioned in that paragraph.
