New section 14ZD

22. The principal Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 14ZC, the following section:

“Deduction for expenditure incurred by individual in deriving commission

14ZD.—(1) This section applies for the purpose of ascertaining, for the basis period for the year of assessment 2020 or a subsequent year of assessment, a qualifying individual’s income by way of commission that is derived from carrying on one or more trades, businesses, professions or vocations that are prescribed by rules made under section 7 (called in this section prescribed activity or activities), in respect of which there are outgoings or expenses that are deductible under this Part.

(2) Despite any other provision in this Part, there is to be deducted, in lieu of those outgoings or expenses, an amount computed in accordance with the formula $A \times B$, where —

(a) A is 25% or such other percentage as may be prescribed by rules made under section 7; and

(b) B is the gross amount of the individual’s commission derived from carrying on a prescribed activity or (if the individual carries on more than one prescribed activity in the basis period) all of those prescribed activities in the basis period, being commission in respect of which there are outgoings or expenses that are deductible under this Part.

(3) However, subsection (2) does not apply to an individual who has made an election under subsection (4) to disapply subsection (2) to the individual’s commission derived from carrying on a prescribed activity or prescribed activities in the basis period.

5 (4) An individual may, in such form and manner and within such time as the Comptroller may determine, make an election to the Comptroller to disapply subsection (2) to the individual's commission derived from carrying on a prescribed activity or prescribed activities in the basis period for a particular year of assessment.

10 (5) If the individual derived commission from carrying on more than one prescribed activity in the basis period in respect of which there are outgoings or expenses that are deductible under this Part, the individual may not make an election under subsection (4) in respect of only one or some of those prescribed activities.

15 (6) In this section —

“qualifying individual”, in relation to any basis period, means an individual who satisfies the following conditions:

20 (a) the individual is resident in Singapore in the year of assessment relating to the basis period;

25 (b) the individual derived commission from a prescribed activity or prescribed activities in the basis period, being commission in respect of which there are outgoings or expenses that are deductible under this Part, and the total amount of such commission does not exceed $50,000 or such amount as may be prescribed by rules made under section 7;

30 (c) such other conditions as may be prescribed by rules made under section 7;

“commission” means commission that is chargeable to tax under section 10(1)(a), and includes such other payment as may be prescribed by rules made under section 7, but excludes any commission —

(a) that is derived by the individual concerned as a partner of a partnership; or

(b) that is prescribed by rules made under section 7.”.

5 (2) Subsection (1) has effect for the year of assessment 2020 and subsequent years of assessment.

Amendment of section 19B

23. Section 19B of the principal Act is amended —

(a) by inserting, immediately after subsection (2B), the following subsections:

10 “(2BA) If —

(a) any requirement under subsection (2A)(a) and (b) has been waived for a company under subsection (2B); and

(b) the company fails to comply with a condition subsequent imposed under subsection (2B) for such waiver, then, if the Minister or the person appointed by the Minister is satisfied, having regard to the company’s representation and all the relevant circumstances of the case, that it is just and reasonable to do so, the Minister or appointed person may determine that the allowance which would not have been allowed to the company but for the waiver, is to be recovered from the company, for such year or years of assessment as the Minister or appointed person may determine.

20

(2BB) If a determination mentioned in subsection (2BA) is made, the allowances mentioned in that subsection are treated as the company’s income for the year of assessment in which the non-compliance is discovered.”; and

25

(b) by deleting paragraph (a) of subsection (10) and substituting the following paragraphs:

30 “(a) under subsection (1) for any capital expenditure incurred in respect of intellectual property rights acquired after the last day of the basis period for the year of assessment 2016;

- (aa) under subsection (1AA) for any capital expenditure incurred in respect of intellectual property rights acquired after the last day of the basis period for the year of assessment 2025; or”.

New section 34J

27. The principal Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 34I, the following section:

5 “Tax treatment arising from adoption of FRS 116 or SFRS(I) 16

34J.—(1) Where an MSI recipient makes an election in accordance with subsection (9) to adopt the tax treatment under this section, then, despite any other provision of this Act, that tax treatment applies in relation to the MSI recipient in accordance with this section.

(2) If, in the basis period for any of the following (each known as an antecedent year of assessment):

- 15 (a) the year of assessment relating to the basis period in which 12 December 2018 or the basis period in which the election under subsection (9) was made, whichever is later; and
- (b) any subsequent year of assessment before the year of assessment relating to the basis period in which the electee ceases to be an MSI recipient,

20 a sublease by the electee of a sublease asset is recognized by the electee as a finance lease in accordance with FRS 116 or SFRS(I) 16, any income of the electee derived under that sublease in that basis period is taken as having been derived from a finance lease for the purpose of section 10D.

25 (3) If, in the basis period for an antecedent year of assessment, a sublease by the electee of a sublease asset is recognized by the electee as an operating lease in accordance with FRS 116 or SFRS(I) 16, any income of the electee derived under that sublease in that basis period is taken as not having been derived from a finance lease for the purpose of section 10D.

30 (4) The electee is not entitled to any deduction under Part V in an antecedent year of assessment for any outgoing or expense in relation to a qualifying asset incurred during the basis period for that year of assessment against any income derived by the electee in that basis period from any use of a qualifying asset of which the electee is a lessee.

(5) For an antecedent year of assessment -

- 5 (a) an electee is not entitled to any allowance under section 19, 19A, 20, 21 or 22; and
- (b) no charge may be made on an electee under section 20 or 21,

10 in respect of any qualifying asset of which the electee is a lessee.

(6) For the year of assessment relating to the basis period in which the electee ceases to be an MSI recipient (called in this section the last year of assessment), the tax treatment set out in subsections (2) to (5) applies up till the date before the electee ceases to be an MSI recipient.

(7) For the last year of assessment, the capital allowances under section 19, 19A, 20, 21 or 22 for any qualifying asset of which the electee is a lessee, and which was leased for a trade or business of the MSI recipient before the date the MSI recipient ceases to be such, are to be—

20

- (a) calculated on the residue of the capital expenditure or reducing value of the qualifying asset (as the case may be) after deducting all such allowances (including initial and annual allowances) that would (but for subsection (5)) have been made to the electee for all antecedent years of assessment, even though no such allowance was made; and
- 25
- (b) pro-rated according to the part of the basis period for the last year of assessment that remains after the MSI recipient has ceased to be such, and during which that trade or business is continued.
- 30

(8) For each subsequent year of assessment after the last year of assessment, the capital allowances under section 19, 19A, 20, 21 or 22 for any qualifying asset of which the electee is a lessee, and which was leased for a trade or business of the MSI recipient before the date the MSI recipient ceases to be such, are to be calculated on the residue of the capital expenditure or reducing value of the qualifying asset (as the case may be) after deducting —

(a) all such allowances (including initial and annual allowances) that would (but for subsection (5)) have been made to the electee for all antecedent years of assessment, even though no such allowance was made; and

10

(b) the total amount of such allowances that would have been made to the electee for the last year of assessment without the proration under subsection (7)(b).

15

(9) An MSI recipient may make an election to adopt the tax treatment under this section by providing a notice in writing to the Comptroller of this--

20

(a) at the time of lodgment of the return of income for the year of assessment relating to a basis period during which its financial accounts are prepared in accordance with FRS 116 or SFRS(I) 16; or

(b) within such further time as the Comptroller may allow.

(10) The election made under subsection (9) is irrevocable.

Amendment of section 45AA

34. Section 45AA of the principal Act is amended —

(a) by deleting subsection (1) and inserting the following subsections:

“(1) Subsection (1A) applies where a notification has been made under section 13(4) to exempt from tax (wholly or in part) payments made by a person to a non-resident person under section 45 or 45A, and —

(a) the exemption is on the basis that the first-mentioned person is approved by the Minister or a person appointed by the Minister under a section specified in the Third Schedule, and the approval is revoked under section 105R after any such payment has been made; or

(b) the first-mentioned person contravenes any condition imposed by the Minister under the notification (whether a condition precedent or a condition subsequent) after any such payment has been made.

(1A) The amount of tax which, but for the approval or the notification (as the case may be), would have been deductible by the first-mentioned person from that payment —

(a) is deemed to have been deducted from that payment;

(b) is a debt due from the first-mentioned person to the Government; and

(c) is recoverable in the manner provided in section 89.”; and

(b) by deleting the words “subsection (1)” in subsections (2), (4) and (7) and substituting in each case the words “subsection (1A)”.

15 New sections 105R and 105S

38. The principal Act is amended by inserting, immediately before section 106, the following sections:

“Revocation of approval

105R.—(1) This section applies where —

- 20 (a) either —
- (i) a person is approved by the Minister or a person appointed by the Minister (called in this section the approving authority) under a prescribed section for a tax incentive to be applied to the person’s income under that provision or regulations made under that provision; or
- 25 (ii) a matter is approved by an approving authority under a prescribed section for a tax incentive to be applied to a person’s income under that provision or regulations made under that provision; and
- 30

(b) the person fails to comply with a condition of the approval.

5 (2) The approving authority may, by notice in writing, require the person to show cause, within 30 days after the date the notice is served on the person, why the approval should not be revoked.

10 (3) If the approving authority is satisfied, having regard to the person's representation and all the relevant circumstances of the case, that it is just and reasonable to do so, the approving authority may revoke the approval, and the revocation is effective from a date specified by the approving authority to the person.

(4) The approving authority may specify any date for the revocation to take effect, including (if it is just and reasonable to do so) —

15 (a) a date before the date of the non-compliance with the condition; or

(b) if the condition is to be complied with over a period of time, before the date of commencement of that period.

20 (5) The revocation of an approval under this section does not affect the operation of any provision of this Act providing for other consequences for a breach of a condition of the approval.

(6) To avoid doubt, where —

25 (a) a tax incentive has been applied to any income of the person under a prescribed section, or an order under section 13(12);

30 (b) the tax incentive would not have been applied to the person's income if the person or matter was not approved under the prescribed section on the date the relevant income accrued to or was derived or received by the person, or the relevant expenditure was incurred by the person, as the case may be; and

(c) the approval is revoked under this section with effect from or before that date, the Comptroller may make an assessment or additional assessment under section 74 on the person.

(7) This section applies to an approval given under a prescribed section whether before, on or after [Gazette] date.

- 5 (8) In this section —
- (a) a prescribed section is a section of the Act specified in the Third Schedule;
 - (b) a tax incentive is any of the following:
 - 10 (i) an exemption from tax;
 - (ii) a concessional rate of tax;
 - (iii) a deduction or an allowance;
 - (iv) a reduction of the statutory income of a person;
 - (c) a tax incentive that is an exemption from tax is applied to a person's income if any income of the person becomes exempt from tax;
 - 15 (d) a tax incentive that is a concessional rate of tax is applied to a person's income if tax is levied on any income of the person at that rate;
 - (e) a tax incentive that is a deduction or an allowance is applied to a person's income if it is allowed or made for any expenditure in ascertaining the person's chargeable income; and
 - 20 (f) a tax incentive that is a reduction of the statutory income of a person is applied to a person's income if such reduction is made to the person's statutory income.
 - 25

Conditions for application of tax incentive treated as conditions of approval

30 105S.—(1) This section applies to each of the following approvals made before [Gazette] date:

- (a) an approval of a Finance and Treasury Centre of a company under section 43G for tax at a concessionary rate to be levied on the company's income under regulations made under that section;
- 5 (b) an approval of a person under section 43P, 43Q, 43R, 43W, 43Y, 43Z, 43ZB, 43ZC or 43ZD, for tax at a concessionary rate to be levied on the person's income under that section or regulations made under that section (as the case may be).

10 (2) For the purposes of section 105R, every condition imposed or specified before the date mentioned in subsection (1) under section 43G(2), 43P(2), 43Q(2), 43R(2), 43W(3), 43Y(2), 43Z(3), 43ZB(3), 43ZC(3) or 43ZD(3) in force immediately before that date, in relation to a Finance and Treasury Centre or person is treated as a condition imposed on the approval of the 15 Finance and Treasury Centre or person (as the case may be) under the corresponding section mentioned in subsection (1).

(3) In this section —
