A BILL
i n t i t u l e d

An Act to amend the Infectious Diseases Act (Chapter 137 of the 2003 Revised Edition).

Be it enacted by the President with the advice and consent of the Parliament of Singapore, as follows:

Short title and commencement

1. This Act is the Infectious Diseases (Amendment) Act 2018 and comes into operation on a date that the Minister charged with the responsibility for health appoints by notification in the Gazette.

5 Amendment of section 2

2. Section 2 of the Infectious Diseases Act (called in this Act the principal Act) is amended —

(a) by deleting the definition of “AIDS”;

10 (b) by inserting, immediately after the definition of “contact”, the following definition:

““contact tracing measure” means any measure to facilitate the tracing of contacts of an infectious disease;”;

15 (c) by inserting, immediately after the definition of “HIV infection”, the following definition:

““individually-identifiable”, when used to describe information or human samples pertaining to an individual, means that the identity of that individual can be readily discovered or ascertained from that information;”;

20 (d) by inserting, immediately after the definition of “master”, the following definition:

““medical examination” includes the carrying out of any of the measures mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (e), with a view to ascertaining a person’s state of health, whether or not any person carrying out the examination is present with the person being examined, and any other measures to facilitate the carrying out of any of the measures mentioned in those paragraphs:

25 (a) physical examination of the person;

30 (b) obtaining the person’s bodily samples;

- (c) obtaining images of, or measuring, the person's physiology;
- (d) measuring or monitoring the person's physiological signs;
- 5 (e) obtaining the clinical history of a person;";
- (e) by deleting the definition of "Minister" and substituting the following definition:
- " "Minister" means —
- 10 (a) except as provided in paragraph (b) — the Minister charged with the responsibility for health; and
- (b) in sections 3(2), 5 (in relation to any advisory committee for the Director-General), 71 (in relation to any exemption from a provision in Part V, other than sections 26, 27, 31 and 32) and 73 (in relation to Part V, other than sections 26, 27, 31 and 32) — the Minister charged with the responsibility for the environment and water resources;"; and
- 15
- 20 (f) by deleting the definition of "surveillance" and substituting the following definition:
- " "surveillance" means the subjection of a person or persons to medical examinations or observations carried out over a period of time, whether continuously or from time to time, and the carrying out of any measures to facilitate such medical examinations or observations;".
- 25

Amendment of section 3

- 3. Section 3 of the principal Act is amended —
- 30 (a) by deleting the words "IV and VI" in subsection (1) and substituting the words "IV, VI and VIIA and sections 26, 27, 31 and 32";

- (b) by inserting, immediately after the words “Part V”, the words “, except sections 26, 27, 31 and 32”; and
- (c) by inserting, immediately after subsection (4), the following subsection:

- 5 “(5) To avoid doubt —
- (a) Part V does not prevent the exercise of any power conferred by another Part in relation to any vessel, person or article to which Part V applies; and
- (b) a notification under subsection (3) directing that 10 any power conferred on the Director under Part III be exercised by the Director-General in relation to any matter specified in the notification does not prevent the exercise of that power by the Director in relation to that matter.”.

15 Amendment of section 6

4. Section 6 of the principal Act is amended —

- (a) by deleting the words “an infectious disease” in subsection
 (1) and (2) and substituting in each case the words “a relevant infectious disease”; and
- 20 (b) by deleting subsection (3) and substituting the following subsections:

“(3) The Director may require any other person who belongs to a prescribed class to notify the Director, within the prescribed time and in such form or manner as the Director may require, if the person is aware or suspects
 25 that any other person —

- (a) is suffering from, or is a carrier of, a relevant infectious disease; or
- (b) has died whilst suffering from, or being a carrier
 30 of, a relevant infectious disease.

(3A) In this section —

- 5
- (a) “prescribed time”, in relation to the notification of any relevant infectious disease by a person who belongs to a prescribed class, means the time specified in the fourth column of the Fifth Schedule for the prescribed class in respect of the relevant infectious disease;
- (b) “prescribed class” means a class of persons specified in the second column of the Fifth Schedule;
- 10 (c) “relevant infectious disease”, in relation to any person who belongs to a prescribed class, means an infectious disease listed in the third column of the Fifth Schedule for the prescribed class.”.

8. Section 21 of the principal Act is amended —

- (a) by deleting the words “order in writing” in subsections (1) and (2) and substituting in each case the words “written order”;
- (b) by deleting subsections (3) and (4) and substituting the following subsections:

“(2A) Despite any order made under subsection (1) or (2), the Director may, by written order, direct a person mentioned in subsection (1) or (2) to comply with conditions specified by the Director to prevent the spread or possible outbreak of an infectious disease while carrying on the person’s occupation, trade or business.

(3) Any person who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with an order made by the Director under subsection (1) or (2) shall be guilty of an offence, unless there is in force an order under subsection (2A) allowing the person to continue to carry on the person’s occupation, trade or business subject to conditions.

(3A) Where there is in force an order under subsection (2A) imposing conditions on the carrying on of a person’s occupation, trade or business, the person shall be guilty of an offence if the person, without reasonable excuse, refuses or fails to comply with any condition imposed by the order while carrying on that occupation, trade or business.

5 (4) Without prejudice to any proceedings under subsections (3) and (3A), the Director, a Health Officer or a police officer may, without warrant and with such force as may be necessary, enter the premises on which a person's occupation, trade or business is being carried out and take or cause to be taken such measures as are 10 necessary to close the premises, if the person has not complied with —

(a) an order under subsection (1) or (2) prohibiting the person from carrying on that occupation, trade or business, unless there is in force an order under 15 subsection (2A) allowing the person to continue to carry on the person's occupation, trade or business subject to conditions; or

(b) any condition imposed by an order under subsection (2A) while carrying on that person's 20 occupation, trade or business.”; and

(c) by deleting the words “or (2)” in subsections (6) and (7) and substituting in each case the words “, (2) or (2A)”.

New section 57B

22. The principal Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 57A, the following section:

“Disclosure of information to prevent spread or possible outbreak of infectious disease, etc., as authorised by Director

57B.—(1) The Director may, by written notice, authorise a healthcare provider to disclose the information to a specified recipient, which identifies any person as a case or carrier or contact of an infectious disease (called in this section the affected person) or as being suspected to be an affected person, to enable the specified recipient to take the necessary measures to prevent the spread or possible outbreak of any infectious disease.

(2) The Director may, in authorising the disclosure of any information under subsection (1) by a healthcare provider, impose such conditions on the healthcare provider or the specified recipient of that information, and the healthcare provider or specified recipient (as the case may be) must comply with such conditions.

(3) A specified recipient of information provided pursuant to subsection (1) may disclose that information to another person providing a licensable healthcare service to an affected person on behalf of the specified recipient, or use that information, only to the extent necessary to take the necessary measures to prevent the spread or possible outbreak of that infectious disease, but not otherwise.

- 5 (4) Any person who, without reasonable excuse —
- (a) fails to comply with any condition imposed under subsection (2); or
 - (b) contravenes subsection (3),
- shall be guilty of an offence.
- 10 (5) This section applies without prejudice to any other right of disclosure under this Act or any other written law or rule of law.
- (6) In this section —
- “healthcare provider” means any person that provides a licensable healthcare service;
 - 15 “licensable healthcare service” has the meaning given to it in section 2 of the Healthcare Services Act 2018;
 - “specified recipient” means any person that provides a licensable healthcare service to an affected person.”

 - (b) by deleting the words “public health research under subsection (1), the Director shall consider —” in subsection (2) and substituting the words “research under subsection (1), the Director must consider the extent to which all or any of the following factors exist:”;
 - 25 (c) by deleting the word “and” at the end of subsection (2)(b);

(d) by deleting the words “research under subsection (1)” in subsection (3) and substituting the words “national public health research”;

(e) by deleting the word “and” at the end of subsection (3)(a)(ii);

5 (f) by deleting the full-stop at the end of subsection (3)(b) and substituting the word “; and”, and by inserting immediately thereafter the following paragraph:

“(c) use any other information or samples obtained by the Director under this Act.”;

10 (g) by inserting, immediately after the words “to the Director” in subsection (4), the words “, unless the Director directs otherwise”;

(h) by deleting subsection (5) and substituting the following subsections:

15 “(5) For the purpose of any national public health research, the Director may do all or any of the following:

20 (a) send any information or human sample received by him under this Act to a third party to carry out such test, examination or analysis as the Director may consider necessary;

(b) provide any information or human sample received by him under this Act to a third party who is engaged in any national public health research;

25 (c) impose such conditions as the Director thinks fit on the third party mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b).

30 (5A) If the Director is satisfied that any national public health research can be carried out only if any individually-identifiable information or individually-identifiable human sample is provided under this section, the Director may require, use, send or provide that individually-identifiable information or individually-identifiable human sample under this section for the purposes of the national public health research.”; and

- (i) by inserting, immediately after the definition of “human sample” in subsection (7), the following definition:

5 ““national public health research” means any research that the Director decides to undertake or facilitate under subsection (1);”.

Repeal and re-enactment of section 67

10 24. Section 67 of the principal Act is repealed and the following section substituted therefor:

Protection from personal liability

15 67. No liability shall lie personally against the Director, the Director-General, any Health Officer, any Port Health Officer, any police officer or any authorised person mentioned in section 17A(7) who, in good faith and with reasonable care, does or omits to do anything in the execution or purported execution of this Act.

New sections 67A, 67B and 67C

20 25. The principal Act is amended by inserting, immediately after section 67, the following section:

“Immunity from liability for disclosure

25 67A. No person commits an offence under any written law or any breach of confidence, incurs any civil liability or is liable to any disciplinary action by a professional body, by virtue merely of disclosing any information or providing any thing, in good faith and with reasonable care —

- (a) in accordance with any requirement under this Act; or
- (b) as authorised by the Director under section 57B.

Offences by corporations

67B.—(1) Where, in a proceeding for an offence under this Act, it is necessary to prove the state of mind of a corporation in relation to a particular conduct, evidence that —

- 5 (a) an officer, employee or agent of the corporation engaged in that conduct within the scope of his actual or apparent authority; and
- (b) the officer, employee or agent had that state of mind,
- is evidence that the corporation had that state of mind.

10 (2) Where a corporation commits an offence under this Act, a person —

- (a) who is —
- (i) an officer of the corporation, or a member of a corporation (in the case where the affairs of the corporation are managed by its members); or
- 15 (ii) an individual involved in the management of the corporation and in a position to influence the conduct of the corporation in relation to the commission of the offence; and
- 20 (b) who —
- (i) consented or connived, or conspired with others, to effect the commission of the offence;
- (ii) is in any other way, whether by act or omission, knowingly concerned in, or is party to, the
- 25 commission of the offence by the corporation; or
- (iii) knew or ought reasonably to have known that the offence by the corporation (or an offence of the same type) would be or is being committed, and failed to take all reasonable steps to prevent or stop
- 30 the commission of that offence, shall be guilty of that same offence as is the corporation, and shall be liable on conviction to be punished accordingly.

(3) A person mentioned in subsection (2) may rely on a defence that would be available to the corporation if it were charged with the offence with which the person is charged and, in doing so, the person bears the same burden of proof that the corporation would bear.

(4) To avoid doubt, this section does not affect the application of —

- (a) Chapters V and VA of the Penal Code (Cap. 224); or
- (b) the Evidence Act (Cap. 97) or any other law or practice regarding the admissibility of evidence.

(5) To avoid doubt, subsection (2) also does not affect the liability of the corporation for an offence under this Act, and applies whether or not the corporation is convicted of the offence.

(6) In this section —

“corporation” includes a limited liability partnership within the meaning of section 2(1) of the Limited Liability Partnerships Act (Cap. 163A);

“officer”, in relation to a corporation, means any director, partner, chief executive, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the corporation, and includes any person purporting to act in any such capacity;

“state of mind” of a person includes —

- (a) the knowledge, intention, opinion, belief or purpose of the person; and
- (b) the person’s reasons for the intention, opinion, belief or purpose.

Offences by unincorporated associations or partnerships

67C.—(1) Where, in a proceeding for an offence under this Act, it is necessary to prove the state of mind of an unincorporated association or a partnership in relation to a particular conduct, evidence that —

- (a) an employee or agent of the unincorporated association or the partnership engaged in that conduct within the scope of his actual or apparent authority; and
- (b) the employee or agent had that state of mind,

5 is evidence that the unincorporated association or partnership had that state of mind.

(2) Where an unincorporated association or a partnership commits an offence under this Act, a person —

(a) who is —

- 10 (i) an officer of the unincorporated association or a member of its governing body;
- (ii) a partner in the partnership; or
- 15 (iii) an individual involved in the management of the unincorporated association or partnership and in a position to influence the conduct of the unincorporated association or partnership (as the case may be) in relation to the commission of the offence; and

(b) who —

- 20 (i) consented or connived, or conspired with others, to effect the commission of the offence;
- (ii) is in any other way, whether by act or omission, knowingly concerned in, or is party to, the commission of the offence by the unincorporated association or partnership; or
- 25 (iii) knew or ought reasonably to have known that the offence by the unincorporated association or partnership (or an offence of the same type) would be or is being committed, and failed to take all reasonable steps to prevent or stop the commission of that offence, shall be guilty of the same offence as is that unincorporated association or partnership, and shall be liable on conviction to be punished accordingly.
- 30

5 (3) A person mentioned in subsection (2) may rely on a defence that would be available to the unincorporated association or partnership if it were charged with the offence with which the person is charged and, in doing so, the person bears the same burden of proof that the unincorporated association or partnership would bear.

10 (4) To avoid doubt, this section does not affect the application of —

- (a) Chapters V and VA of the Penal Code (Cap. 224); or
- (b) the Evidence Act (Cap. 97) or any other law or practice regarding the admissibility of evidence.

15 (5) To avoid doubt, subsection (2) also does not affect the liability of an unincorporated association or a partnership for an offence under this Act, and applies whether or not the unincorporated association or partnership is convicted of the offence.

20 (6) In this section —

“officer”, in relation to an unincorporated association (other than a partnership), means the president, the secretary, or any member of the committee of the unincorporated association, and includes —

- 25 (a) any person holding a position analogous to that of president, secretary or member of a committee of the unincorporated association; and
- (b) any person purporting to act in any such capacity;

“partner” includes a person purporting to act as a partner;

30 “state of mind” of a person includes —

- (a) the knowledge, intention, opinion, belief or purpose of the person; and

(b) the person’s reasons for the intention, opinion, belief or purpose.”.

Repeal and re-enactment of section 68

5 26. Section 68 of the principal Act is repealed and the following section substituted therefor:

“Composition of offences

10 68.—(1) The Director or the Director-General (as the case may be) may compound any offence under this Act that is prescribed as a compoundable offence by collecting from a person reasonably suspected of having committed the offence a sum not exceeding the lower of the following:

- (a) one half of the amount of the maximum fine that is prescribed for the offence;
- (b) $10,000.

15 (2) On payment of such sum of money, no further proceedings are to be taken against that person in respect of the offence.

(3) All sums collected under this section must be paid into the Consolidated Fund.”.

Repeal and re-enactment of Second Schedule

20 27. The Second Schedule to the principal Act is repealed and the following Schedule substituted therefor:

“SECOND SCHEDULE

Sections 2 and 21A
